SECTION XIV.

PUBLIC HEALTH (SHELL&FISH) REGULATIONS 1934 and 1948:-

There is no shell-fishing industry in the Port Health Area.

SECTION XV.

No change.

SECTION XVI.

MISCELLANEOUS:

During the year there was a quite marked reduction in the china clay trade, due largely to two factors, firstly, a slump in the continental paper trade and, secondly, the loss of several traditional markets to American suppliers as an aftermath of the national dock strike. In addition, Charlestown harbour was closed for extensive work for four months. Most of the shipping and trade loss was at Par, and in Fowey showed an increase on the figures. There are now early signs that an improvement is beginning to take place, and here, of course, the advent of the Common Market could well make a dramatic difference.

I am Sir,

Your obedient servant,

A. M. Luther.
